CONGO TO OUST MORE OFFICIALS

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu's military regime threatened today to follow up its ouster of Ghana's diplomatic staff with the expulsion of other diplomats accused of interfering in the internal affairs of the Congo.

The warning that "others" will be expelled in a "few days" was sounded even while President Joseph Kasavubu was on his way home from New York after winning recognition for his delegation from the U. N. assembly.

Food Handler TB Test Law Adopted by City

One ordinance, requiring food handlers to take TB tests, was passed as an urgency measure Wednesday night by Palm Springs City Council, but a second one, concerning multi-level buildings, was tabled for further study.

The council, in a long discussion over the TB test ordinance, rejected a 5-week allowance for foodhandlers, and inserted a three week period in which people must have the tests.

The discussion led to another potential problem for councilmen, when Sig Ehrens, owner of the Crestview Hotel, told the group that even more serious tests should be legislated — for venereal disease.

He said that the statistics show a marked increase in this disease in resort areas.

VETERAN NEWSMAN

Fred H. Weigel Succumbs Today

Frederick H. Weigel, veteran California newspaperman and executive director of the newly launched Palm Springs News and Photo Service, died at about 3 a.m. today, in Desert Hospital following a stroke.

Weigel, father of Desert Sun reporter Fred G. Weigel, was 69 years of age.

A 46-YEAR VETERAN in newspaper work, Weigel was born in Dubuque, Iowa, but came to California at age eight.

At 14, he returned to Dubuque to take a job with the Telegraph-Herald there. For the next 46 years he was a consistent factor in newspapering, largely in California.

Some of his work was done for the Fresno Republican, where he was political editor; for the San Francisco Chronicle, for which he headed a Fresno bureau; for the Clovis Tribune, which he purchased in 1939; for the Friant Projector, which he launched, and for the Los Angeles Herald-Express, for which he worked 19 years. He was a highly respected reporter in Los Angeles news circles and was labor editor for a long period for that publication.

WEIGEL STARTED the news and photo facility here three months ago and had scored resounding successes in representing Village clients with it.

In addition to his son here, Weigel is survived by his widow, Marion; another son, William K. Weigel of Sierra Madre; two daughters, Mrs. Joyce Herman of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. Marilyn Benkert of Pasadena; a brother, F. Reid Weigel of North Hollywood, and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen King Davis of Palm Springs.

Funeral services are pending and will probably be announced tomorrow.

Taxable Sales Up $5 Million In Fiscal Year

Total Nears $45 Million Mark in City

Taxable sales in the City of Palm Springs came close to breaking the $45 million mark during last fiscal year, an increase of over $5 million compared to the 1958-59 fiscal year, Shelby V. Langford reported today.

Taxable sales for the 12 months from July 1959 to June 1960 were $44,782,000, compared to $39,402,000 for the previous 12 months, a difference of $5,380,000.

LANGFORD TERMED the increase as a usual one, more than recorded the previous year, but less in proportion than some years before that. The jump in taxable sales reflects the increase in business activity here.

Sales not included in this amount are tax exempt sales for consumption rather than resale, consisting primarily of sales of food for off-premises consumption and of gasoline.

THE SALES FOR the last quarter of fiscal 1960 were $11,135,000, compared to $10,200,000 for April, May and June of 1959.

Leading category in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1960 consisted of eating and drinking places with total sales of $1,675,000. There were 63 outlets recorded.

Other classifications and sales were:

APPAREL STORES, 66 outlets, $1,504,000; general merchandise stores, 14 outlets, $810,000; food stores, including candy stores, $394,000; packaged liquor and tobacco stores, 6 outlets, $217,000; drug stores, 7 outlets, $813,000.

Home furnishings and appliance stores, 18 outlets, $296,000; building material and farm implement stores, 11 outlets, $320,000; motor vehicle dealers, six outlets, $1,367,000; service stations and auto supply stores, 20 outlets, $173,000; other retail outlets, 69, $327,000.

PERSONAL SERVICE establishments, 119 outlets, $1,373,000; manufacturing, wholesalers, contracting and miscellaneous outlets, 115, $1,266,000.

Langford said that total receipts in sales and use taxes to the city during last fiscal year were $42,174, not including the amount given to the county and for collection.

Cost of Living Hits New High During October

WASHINGTON — Higher prices for food, new cars, housing and clothing pushed the cost of living to a record high in October, the Labor Department reported today.

The department's consumer price index rose 0.4 per cent, the second largest jump this year and the eighth time in 10 months it has risen.

THE INDEX FOR October stood at 127.3, meaning that prices last month were 27.3 per cent higher than in 1947-49. The index was 1.4 per cent higher than a year ago.

As a result of the rise, some 1.1 million workers will get pay increases. About 975,000 workers in autos and farm equipment manufacturing will get two cents an hour more. Another $0.004 in small aircraft firms and farm equipment lines will get an additional one cent an hour.

To Be Named After Father

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today became the delighted father of a "fine, healthy" baby boy whose premature arrival happily climaxed a hectic series of pre-delivery developments.

Kennedy's 31-year-old wife, Jacqueline, gave birth to their first son by Caesarean section at 12:22 a.m. (e.s.t.) after being rushed to Georgetown University Hospital by ambulance. The newborn, the Kennedy's second child, weighed 6 pounds, 3 ounces. He will be named John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Jr.

BOTH MOTHER and son were reported doing "fine" by the 43-year-old president-elect, who streaked back from Florida by plane when he learned his wife had been taken to the hospital. He was told of the premature but safe delivery while en route back.

Mrs. Kennedy, who had not expected the child until Dec. 12, had been fearful prior to the delivery that she might lose the baby. Throughout the night's ambulance ride and pre-birth preparations, she kept asking if the baby would be all right.

HER FEARS proved groundless. The newest member of the Kennedy clan was described by Dr. John W. Walsh who delivered him as "a very good looking and healthy youngster" who has already demonstrated a "lusty cry."

Because of his early arrival, the baby was being kept in an incubator until probably sometime Saturday.

THE FATHER paid two trips to the hospital within 12 hours after the boy was born. The first was within minutes after his dramatic trip back to Washington. The second was shortly before noon when he spent 20 minutes with his happy wife.

Kennedy was brimming over with delight and said both mother and son "looked fine."

KENNEDY, WHO had celebrated Thanksgiving here with his wife and three-year-old daughter Caroline, was 13,000 feet over the east coast of Florida on a quick turnaround flight back to Washington when he got news of the birth over the plane's radio.

After the plane touched down here at 4:02 a.m. he sped to the hospital in 14 minutes.

The president-elect visited the drowsy Jacqueline for eight or nine minutes, took a loving peek at his first son through a glass nursery window and then jubilantly proclaimed that both were "fine."

THE CHILD WILL be kept in an incubator for 24 to 48 hours as is customary with Caesarean deliveries.

The president-elect had left Washington at 8:20 p.m. (e.s.t.), Thursday after apparently receiving assurances that his wife Jacqueline was well enough for him to resume his post-election vacation at Palm Beach, Fla.

Family Has Special Reason to Be Thankful--Son Rescued from Hole

GILROY, Calif. — A father of five children carried his dirt-stained, two-year-old son to an ambulance Thursday night, and then, as tears streamed down his face, he turned to a crowd which had joined him in a terrifying, three-hour vigil.

"Thank all these people for us," he said. "I don't even know their names."

It was Thanksgiving Day, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Duncan, of Gardena, Calif., had a special reason to be thankful.

DUNCAN, AN electrical engineer, brought his family to Gilroy to have holiday dinner with his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Jackson. She lives next to a motel where a 10-foot hole had been dug for a concrete fill to reinforce the building's foundation.

Shortly before dinner, two of Duncan's sons, Todd, 2, and Glenn 4, were playing near the hole, which had an opening of only 12 inches.

Todd fell in, feet first.

GLENN CALLED to his father, who notified police and firemen. Mrs. Duncan collapsed.

Duncan ran to the hole and played a flashlight into the darkness. He whispered words of encouragement to the little boy.

"Don't worry, Toddy," he said, "We'll get you out."

The youngster cried occasionally, but he didn't answer.

Gilroy firemen put an oxygen line down the hole, and summoned a crew from Pacific Gas and Electric Company to provide a power digger.

THE PG&E CREW began digging a hole two feet away and parallel to the one in which Todd was trapped. They worked carefully, knowing that a cave-in would bury the boy.

Finally the hole was deep enough so rescue workers could make a horizontal cut to reach the crying child. At 6:30 p.m., p.s.t., nearly three and one-half hours after Todd's fall, the youngster was placed in the arms of his father.

The boy was rushed to Wheeler Hospital where doctors said he apparently was in good shape.

"He's cute as they come," said a hospital nurse, "but his face is awfully dirty."

NO INJURIES WERE reported in Palm Springs Thanksgiving day, but property damage resulted when two visitors collided at Tahquitz-McCallum and Union Avenue at approximately 2:30 p. m. Investigating officers reported that a car driven by Earl James, Banning, struck the car of Thomas Arthur Techen, La Canada, when the brakes on James' car failed. He was cited for operating a mechanically unsafe vehicle. (Desert Sun Photo)

Anderson spoke to the meeting in the multipurpose room of the Palm Desert elementary school, called by the Palm Desert Library Association's president Hal Kapp. Approximately 105 persons attended the meeting, including members of the Palm Desert Retail Merchants Association, who ended their bi-monthly meeting early to join other community representatives for the presentations.

The fact - gathering session was a familiarization meeting only, a spokesman for the Library Association emphasized.

Early Christmas Mailing Urged By Williams

Palm Springs Postmaster Merritt Williams today called for early mailing of Christmas cards and gifts, terming the entire Christmas mailing period as a "big battle against time."

On mailing, Williams offered several suggestions: —Don't take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use sturdy corrugated mailing cartons. plenty of heavy wrapping paper and strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be well stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

—With articles of unusual size or bulk, check with the post office before attempting to mail them. The limits of size and weight of packages vary, depending on where they are mailed.

—Always send Christmas cards by first class mail, and include return name and address on each envelope.

—Send all Christmas mail going long distances before Dec. 10th. Follow up promptly with cards and gifts for local delivery.

CITY OBJECTS TO ABATEMENT COST

Abatement of sub-standard homes in Section 14 came under heavy scrutiny this week when the City Council learned that the city had paid an average of $220 a house for each one destroyed last year.

Jack Sanders, chief building inspector, told the council that the city spent $2,644 to destroy 12 condemned homes in Section 14 in 1959, and that now the problem is growing larger.

"SO FAR THIS fiscal year," Sanders said, "we have done real well. We have destroyed a total of seven homes, and it has not cost us anything."

But the situation is growing, and following a meeting with Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe, who is guardian for several Indian and owners, the jurist asked that the city proceed immediately to condemn and/or destroy the below standard homes in the section in downtown Palm Springs.

SANDERS ASKED the council if they wanted to pick up the bill for the abatement of these buildings, to which the council answered an emphatic "no."

But they did agree that it had to be done.

Sanders explained that the normal procedure for abatement of a below standard building was the condemnation of the building, the selling of any useable material, and the charging back of the balance of the bill to the property.

"BUT IN THE case of the local Indian property we cannot secure a lien on the land for the cost," he added.

The council, however, came up with a different plan, and asked that City Attorney Jerry Bunker talk with Judge McCabe and work out a plan to charge the Indian owners for the demolition, and if they do not have funds now to pay it, to hold the bill until funds are available.

Young Burglar Given to Mother

Palm Springs police last night turned a 10-year-old boy over to his mother, after the lad admitted a burglary of approximately 500 pennies and a $3.85 watch from quarters in the barracks on the Palm Springs Airport grounds. Police said the youngster may have ridden a bicycle to the site, where he slithered through a sliding horizontal window. The victim reported the room and luggage had been ransacked, but only the pennies and watch were missing.

3 County Scout Camps Improved

The Riverside County Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced today that it has three newly improved camps available to Scouts and Explorers, for weekend and winter camping: Camp Emerson, 70 acre, mile high camp, two miles west of Idyllwild; High Joshua Tree, 10 acres desert camp, one mile west and one mile north of the town of Joshua Tree; and Camp Evans, the 37 acre camp at the foot of Mt. Rubidoux on the Santa Ana River in Riverside. Elmer Burkholder of Riverside is chairman of the Camping Committee and he urges that scout leaders make reservations well in advance at the council office, 4010 Seventh Street, Riverside, as some of the facilities are already scheduled into February 1961.

JFK Election Still in Doubt, Say Experts

Illinois Recount, Southern Shift Could Elect Nixon

WASHINGTON 11 — This is strictly "iffy" stuff. But as of today, two weeks after the election, it's still possible for the presidential election of John F. Kennedy to come unhitched.

KENNEDY'S ELECTORAL vote majority would be threatened if two things happened:

—A recount gave Illinois to Vice President Richard M. Nixon instead of Kennedy.

—Southern Democratic electors decided to withhold their votes from the Democratic candidate.

As of today, the electoral vote stands: Kennedy 300; Nixon 223. Needed to elect 269.

Eight electors in Mississippi are unpledged and six in Alabama are in doubt.

REPUBLICANS HAVE been moving for a recount of votes cast in Cook County, Ill., which gave Kennedy a whopping majority. If the Illinois recount were to shift the state into the Nixon column, Kennedy would lose 27 electoral votes and bring his total down to 273, just four more than the majority needed for victory.

That slim hold on victory then would be in grave danger.

If Illinois shifted—and that's the big if—there might be enough southern electoral votes in question to create doubt over Kennedy's victory.

THE DOUBT WOULD be resolved only when the electoral votes were cast by the various states Dec. 15. If Kennedy then had a clear majority, even if it were a majority of one, that would be it.

If, however, he lost Illinois and if more than four southern delegates now credited to Kennedy should vote for someone else for president—possibly Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia or Richard B. Russell of Georgia, the election would go to the House of Representatives.

Common Ground for Ike, Kennedy

Someone should promote a golf match between President Eisenhower and his successor-to-be, John Kennedy.

Here is a common ground on which both of these popular Americans could meet and enjoy an afternoon of relaxation. Sen. Kennedy plays golf, although he prefers water sports; Ike loves the game and knows that it keeps him fit. Here is a competitive sport which men can enjoy throughout most of their lives. It is the reason why golf has become America's most popular pastime.

President Eisenhower's frequent appearance on golf courses from Palm Springs to Augusta follows a new trend in the lives of American businessmen and political leaders. Tension, worry and lack of exercises caused the untimely death of countless thousands until the need of relaxation to keep fit for the job was finally impressed upon people by their physicians. This, coupled with vastly improved transportation and recreational facilities, has induced businessmen to follow their doctors' advice. They have learned to get away from confinement several times a year instead of the outmoded two-week summer vacation.

After a political campaign that taxed the endurance of even the youthful candidates, John Kennedy and Vice President Nixon left almost immediately for a week of rest and diversion in a mild climate—even had a friendly chat while in the vacation mood. For the same reason Ike was enjoying a few days of golf in Georgia.

All of our presidents have had some sport or hobby to drain worry and tension from their minds and bodies. Facilities and transportation were poor in Colonial days so Washington, Jefferson and Jackson had to be content with short riding and fishing trips, their favorite outdoor activities. In the years that followed, cruising and hunting became popular with many of the chief executives. But Teddy Roosevelt was the first president to take a great interest in sports. The Rough Rider also loved boxing and wrestling, went on famous hunting expeditions, played tennis—and even learned jujitsu.

The big change in vacation planning in recent years is that business and professional men—and their families as well—have more places to go and can get there and back in a hurry. Jet planes, helicopters and super highways carry millions of Americans on short trips that would have been impossible a decade ago.

John Kennedy will lead the reporters who try to follow him on vacation trips a merry chase. The youthful president-elect loves sailing and water sports. He was a star swimmer at Harvard. His skill and endurance enabled him, as a Naval officer in World War II, to stay in the water for 15 hours and save two shipmates after their boat had been rammed by a Japanese destroyer. Demanding as the duties of his office will be, John Kennedy will not neglect his physical fitness.

The few critics who held that President Eisenhower should have spent more time at his desk and less on the golf course are not attune with the times. The value of relaxation and diversion has been firmly planted in the minds of a new generation. It is for this reason that resort areas like Palm Springs have become a vital part of American life today. This trend toward physical fitness and the value of release from strain and worry is positive assurance that the Palm Springs resort area—with its ideal climate and recreational facilities—is bound to become increasingly popular.

Resort facilities are now, as vital a part of the nation as its factories and farms!

Another Candidate Eyes Vote

NEW YORK — Dick Nixon, a good man, took his defeat in good grace. He did not join in the GOP cry for a recount nor berate those who might have come through for him more strongly. He wished the victor well and promised that his own disappointment and frustration would not interfere with his co-operating with the Kennedy administration on all matters which he considered beneficial to the nation.

The Vice President's grace under pressure made us wonder how the other defeated presidential candidates were feeling in the wake of the election. So we rang up one of our favorites, Symon Gould, who headed another losing side, the Vegetarian Party's ticket of himself and his running mate, Dr. Christopher Gian-Cursio, a Miami chiropractor.

"I'VE SENT MY message of congratulations to President-elect Kennedy," Mr. Gould, a chipper, radish-fancying bibliographer of 66 told me briskly. "I congratulated him also on taking one of the planks of my 1948 platform, the one that had to do with forming a Youth Peace Army to 'invade' needy foreign lands with know-how, not guns. And I gave him some much needed advice. I urged him to become a vegetarian in order to keep his health through the difficult years to come."

"We asked Mr. Gould if he was upset over losing the Presidency again. He was defeated twice by President Eisenhower.

"NOT AT ALL," he sang out. "I've written to the Governors of all 50 States asking them to give me a run-down on the minority voting. In view of the closeness of the race between the leading candidates, I think the minority parties played an unusually important role this time. We're on the move."

"The Kennedy majority in the popular vote is hardly 200,000, but I think the vegetarian party polled at least 500,000 this time. After all, there are 3,000,000 vegetarians in this country and I would think most of them voted the straight vegetarian ticket where they could. There's no question that we won converts from both parties and the Independents. For example, as a result of my final campaign windup — my appearance on CBS — I had 750 requests for the Vegetarian Party's Platform."

"IT RAN MY presidential campaign expenses up to nearly $300, but if it did any good, that's all right by me. I assume all campaign expenses." There has been some discussion in the major parties about the contributions Vice Presidential Candidates Lyndon Johnson and Henry Cabot Lodge made to their tickets. We wonder how Mr. Gould felt about Dr. Gian-Cursio.

"HE DID AN outstanding job," Mr. Gould said. "Especially around Miami. I held up the television and radio side of the campaign. We face the future with confidence. I'll only be 70 in 1964 when we try again. We don't believe in putting an age limit on man. John Maxwell of Los Angeles, our first Presidential Candidate, is 97 and in fine shape. Why shouldn't he be, he's a Vegetarian."

Mr. Gould believes the Vegetarian and such other parties as the Prohibition, Green Back and Socialist-Labor serve the country well. "The 2-Party system is too limited for this big country," he told us. "We're big enough to be exposed to all sorts of philosophies. It's a pity that we find it so difficult to have our names listed on Big City voting machines. We must depend on places where the voters mark their ballots or can write in the candidates of their choice."

"ONE OF MY fondest memories is that of helping to carry Eugene V. Debs' speaking platform into place at Broad and Wall, as a boy. I'm the originator of the 'Little' film theaters, the art theaters, in this country. I helped bring Clarence Darrow, Bertrand Russell and Margaret Sanger to our lecture platforms and once wrote a column called 'The Guillotine.' Just put me down as a Stormy Petrel."

"I'll do that, sir, and better luck next time. Or the time after that."

It would seem to me that is about time that you Die - Hard Republicans should cease from crying the blues and concede the victory of the Hon. John F. Kennedy in the national election for President.

Don't you know that it is neither customary, patriotic nor decent to derisively caricature the President-elect of the United States as you have done twice in the current week in your paper?

Or are you trying to introduce a new subversive element into the moves of our country?

A news item in The Desert Sun the other day mentioned that the farming community of India was building a modern facility for the humane handling of sick and wandering small animals picked up in that area.

Palm Springs has long needed such a facility, and some funds have been gathered for that purpose.

But the project lags because of lack of interest here. Seems that the less pretentious people of India are more sympathetic toward easing the lot of helpless animals, than the more ostentatious citizens of Palm Springs.

Many who left the board
With groans,
Today are gnawing on
The bones.

This day is not on the list of special days, weeks and months regularly observed in the nation.

But from coast to coast it is National Indigestion Day.

The makers of bicarbonate of soda are gleefully watching the little black line go over the top on their sales graph.

BEING POSSESSED of low plebeian tastes, I would rather have had a steak or perhaps a bowl of beans, but yielding to tradition, I got away with a drumstick plus plenty of dressing and what goes with that. However, although the nominal head of the household I did not carve the turkey.

I have been deprived of that chore for many years.

EVER SINCE that time early in the marital state when I manfully grasped a carving knife and over-sized fork and prepared to do battle with a noble looking bird before an enraptured audience of relatives.

I poised the knife, swung a left jab with the fork — and we had no turkey.

It was in the back yard.

NOT ONLY THAT, but in its flight, it smashed the glass in the French doors leading to the patio. I haven't been trusted with a carving knife since.

In my stead a judge did the slicing, probably pronouncing sentence on each piece as he plattered it.

Being banned from the ritual was all right with me, too. I was able to enjoy the meal, not being utterly exhausted.

THIS NEW TYPE we're now using in The Desert Sun threw me the first few days. Knowing that the same number of words filled up just a wee bit more space per inch, I tried to adjust. Was five lines too long the first day, three lines too short the second and two too long the third.

Having had a day of rest yesterday, let's hope I hit it on the nose today.

For when I was too long, I sure hated to chop out any of the thoughts I had slaved over a hot typewriter to produce.

THE RECENT ELECTION reminds me of a story, coming out of Russia, that I heard the other day.

A comrade went into a polling place and was handed a sealed envelope and told to stuff it in the ballot box. The voter tore the envelope open and started looking at the ballot.

The irate election official grabbed it from him.

"What are you trying to do?" he roared.

"I just wanted to see who I was voting for," stammered the citizen.

"You fool! Don't you know that in Russia we have the secret ballot!"

And I read somewhere: "Pity the poor clergyman who bought a used car and didn't have the vocabulary to run it."

Buy American

It was rainy the other evening and the streets were full of reflected puddle lights. An excellent night for the movies.

The movie turned out to be one of those foreign affairs — you can't understand the actors without the English subtitles; and you can't understand the plot without a course in abnormal psychology.

I TELL YOU, characters wandered through this flicker, emoting about what they had lost. (It seemed to me they had lost their marbles, that is what I thought.) It was Art, however. The critics were wild about this movie.

And as for me, I was simply wild. I should have let my instincts guide me and gone to the place that had the Western.

A GREAT DEAL of sawdust is being sawed off on the American movie fan. It is either so emotional I cannot enjoy the popcorn, or the funny lines should be handled like you handle antiques.

The first foreign film I ever saw was a long time ago. It was called "Ingagi," and it was a buster.

IT WAS ABOUT jungle ladies and great apes. Emotional stuff. The apes went ape over the jungle ladies. (I think it turned out later that this picture was put together in Hollywood with some leftover African footage. But, no matter. It was billed as foreign stuff.)

The jungle ladies were shown in their jungle habitat. Cuffing the children and avoiding leopards and making appointments with the witch doctor.

THE LADY WAS shown sitting alone in front of her little grass African shack. She feels a tap on her shoulder.

"Home already, Oscar? I thought you were going to the Lions Club dinner."

She looks around. It is not her loving Oscar. It is a great ape (He looks a little like Oscar. But you can tell the difference.) IT IS INGAGI, the great ape. He has a look on his face like an Esquire cartoon.

He puts the arm on the girl before she can even adjust the bone in her nose. And hey-ho, off to the treetops.

THAT IS THE kind of foreign film we used to get. Before emotions set in.

I tell you, we shuddered down in the popcorn rows when this picture came out. (I saw it three times.)

It was foreign and understandable.

NATURALLY, a great ape would want to be engaged to a lady — even one with a bone in her nose — rather than another gorilla.

We had all seen lady gorillas at the zoo.

They needed a shave.

NOW OUR neighborhood theaters seem to be filled with Japanese films, Russian sobbers, German problems and Swedish skyline shots. (Just looking at the skyline seems to urge a Swedish actor on to self-destruction.)

There are closeups of a man picking a single wild flower.

For reasons I could not understand, this wild flower sets off strong feeling. His face churns like a washing machine. He scrags his ever-loving sweetheart and razors himself somewhat.

IN THE JAPANESE film, French lady meets Japanese gentleman.

Do they head for the Nishigeki for the late show? They do not. They beat each other over the noggin with memories and tears. Any other cupcake would be taken home at 9 p.m. acting like this. But the Japanese man stuck with it all through the evening.

That is what the foreign films have come to. That Ingagi now, that was a GREAT ape. He knew just where he was going. And so did we.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: I hid my paper very quickly after reading the many letters from readers who gave various reasons why French poodles made poor pets. You see I have a French poodle, and he doesn't know he's supposed to be high-strung, temperamental and noisy. If he had seen those letters, it might have been disastrous.

MARTHA

DEAR MARTHA: You didn't have to hide the paper. French poodles can't read English.

DEAR ABBY: I've seen many opinions expressed in your column about what to call one's in-laws. Here is how I feel about it: I raised three sons and two daughters. As each was about to be married I let it be known that I was "MRS. BROWN" to the wives and husbands of my children.

The first time I heard my own son call his mother-in-law "Mother" it almost broke my heart to think he could call another woman "Mother" while his own mother was still living.

I don't think it's possible to call anyone except one's own parents "Mother and Dad" and be sincere.

MRS. BROWN

DEAR "MRS. BROWN": You have a right to your own opinion, but thank heaven you are in the minority.

DEAR ABBY: Last year when it came time to mail out our Christmas cards, my husband and I had an argument. I put our name and return address on the back of every envelope. My husband said that it looked like we were hinting for them to send US a card. The reason I did it was in case the front of the envelope got smeared and the postman couldn't read the address, the card would be returned to us. I would appreciate it if you would tell me who was right and who was wrong.

PEEVED

DEAR PEEVED: At last I have an opportunity to do something for the post office department; it has done so much for me! You are right. All cards and letters should bear the name and address of the sender so that if the address is illegible, incomplete or incorrect, the letter can be returned to the sender.

DICK WEST

Touch Football Team

WASHINGTON, D.C. — There's a lot of speculation going on now as to who will be in the Kennedy cabinet. I think we also should give some thought as to who will play on his touch football team.

As you undoubtedly know by now, our president-elect is a devotee of this particular sport, as are several other members of his family. They love to gather on the greenward and throw the old ball around.

IT SEEMS LOGICAL to assume that, once he gets in the White House, Kennedy will do for touch football what Eisenhower did for golf. And we all know what Eisenhower did for golf.

There has been some talk that Kennedy would remove Ike's putting green from the White House lawn and replace it with a football field. However, the president-elect has remained silent on this subject, so at the moment it is still in the realm of conjecture.

ASSUMING THAT this does happen, many of our politically and socially minded citizens will be clamoring for invitations to play touch football with Kennedy. Some of them reportedly have already gone into training.

It occurred to me that there may be some people who are not familiar with the game, so I thought I would digress here long enough to explain the fundamentals. Basically in touch football you pass on every play and tag the runners instead of tackling them.

IN SOME PARTS of the country, the game is known as "peach ball" and "touch tackle." It is popular with amateur athletes because you don't need much equipment — just a football and a vacant lot, or a big back yard.

If you want to know more about the fine points of the game, you can buy a book on touch football, written by John V. Grombach, at many sporting goods stores. I predict that Grombach's royalties will sharply increase in the next few months.

PERSONS INVITED to play touch football at the White House will, of course have to observe a certain protocol. There possibly will be a Supreme Court justice on hand to referee the game. And don't tag Kennedy too hard or the Secret Service might mow you down.

Most observers here seem to feel that Kennedy will be his own quarterback, particularly during the first 100 days of his administration. In signal-calling, however, he is expected to lean heavily on the advice of the Harvard coaching staff.

It may be possible to determine a public figure's standing with the administration by the position Kennedy assigns him to play. The current consensus is that Adlai Stevenson will be the "lonesome end."

County Supervisor Collis Mayflower had a complaint to air this week. "Palms, Palms, Palms," he said. That was when the board approved a map for Two Bunch Palms tract No. 2. "All we have in the county is Palms," he said. "Palm Springs, Palm Desert, Palm Village, Twin Palms."

The old west still lives. A horse thief is being sought today even though the horse is back. The animal, Little Red, was stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson of the Burro Train. The thief abandoned it at Thunderbird Ranch where the liberated steed cavorted on the newly planted golf fairways until Frank Bogert staged a one-man round-up. The thief continued eastward.

The date is tentative and can be changed, the sources said. Eichmann, officials said, will be held incommunicado throughout the trial. Only his attorney will have access to him.

Mrs. Kennedy Still Waiting for Mamie's Tour

WASHINGTON — (U) — The White House declined to say today when Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower would invite her successor to the executive mansion to look over her future home.

"We have nothing to announce," said Mary Jane McCaffree, secretary to an inquiry on whether plans were in the works to invite Mrs. John F. Kennedy, the future first lady, to the White House.

Since the election, Mrs. McCaffree has brushed off all inquiries on whether an invitation will be extended to Mrs. Kennedy.

"When she does extend the invitation," Mrs. McCaffree told a reporter, "We'll let you know."

Mrs. Kennedy's new social secretary, Lelitia Baldrige said Tuesday an invitation has not yet come from Mrs. Eisenhower, but that Jackie Kennedy "hopes it will."

It is customary for outgoing first ladies to show the new woman tenant around the White House. Mrs. Harry S. Truman, wife of the former president, took Mrs. Eisenhower on a cellar to attic tour of the mansion and briefed her on some of the house-keeping secrets shortly after the 1953 election.

Five vice presidents elected were: William A. Drennan representing Kern County; P. E. GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Swim Pool Water Harms Vegetation

If Mr. Amateur Gardener has eagerly and jubilantly called in one of the many Pool Experts and is now proud of his swimming pool we hope he has already learned that emptying the pool water onto the surrounding lawn and flower bed is very unwise.

Soaking the surrounding soil with chlorinated water will not take long to destroy that sedate lawn, flower beds, those new trees, plants, etc., and those months of hard labor have gone for naught. We sincerely hope that the pool has not yet been emptied and the scenic portion is thriving; if not you have a heavy watering job of leaching the soil of sodium chloride or common salt until the last of it is below root areas.

IT HAS NOT always been so, but between now and early February we can look forward to some freezing nights with the thermometers dropping down to possibly 22 degrees. The lowest temperatures as a rule loiter around El Cielo eastward. West of that the temperatures are milder, graduating toward the hills. It would be wise to buy a quantity of coarse burlap and uprights to shield the frost from the tender plants; growths that are similar to the Bougainvillea and are under the eaves can possibly come through without any destruction if a lighted electric bulb is hung in the middle of the leaves. Last year we were sufficiently lucky to save the citrus because of the thickness of the leaves.

der the shelter of the many trees that flourish there. We have no worries about Pyracantha; this stalwart has come through winter every year since the old timers can recollect. Trimming off the straggly branches will keep a symmetrical hedge.

AS FAR AS Roses go we can safely discontinue feeding until February comes in. Keep up the spraying and watering; mulching is also helpful. February is also a month to keep in mind; this is pruning time. When watering in the morning — the best time to water for the next two months — carry your pruning scissors with you and nip off all faded blooms. You can still plant seeds of Alyssum, Sweet Peas, Snapdragon, Phlox, Violas and Pansies, also Hollyhocks but the growth will be slower. Also bulbs of Calla Lilies, Gladiolus, Tulips and Dutch Iris, Jonquils and others, but look forward for slow growth.

WHEN LAST YEAR'S dead lawn has been brought back to life with Winter Rye the fertilized soil should have been heavily irrigated before sowing seed.

Manure direct from the stables will bring weeds so be sure you are using weedless prepared steer bagged manure purchased through your nurseryman. —T.G.M.

COUNTY OFFICIALS HEAD FOR CAPITOL

Attendance of two county officials, Supervisor George Berkey and Planning Director Tyler Suess, at a conference with the Department of the Interior in Washington next week was authorized by the Board of Supervisors this week.

Subjects at the conference to be held Nov. 28 and 29, and possibly the 30th, will be the determination of the Arizona - California boundary line along the Colorado River, determination of squatters' rights, and land use of federal government property.

SHOULD IT develop at a meeting scheduled to be held Nov. 23 in Blythe that it would not be advisable to have county officials attend the Washington conference, there could be a change in plans, but there appears to be little likelihood of such a development.

Both Berkey and Suess were to attend the Blythe meeting arranged by George Gerwing, Board of Trade manager, at the suggestion of Berkey. Interested officials and property owners were to be at the Blythe meeting. "I thought such a gathering would clarify the steps to be taken," said Berkey.

Riverside County has some 40 miles along the Colorado, according to Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen.

Riviera to Present PlayerStage Show

By GEORGE LAINE
It will come as good news to most of our town — with the exception of Mary Carlin and some others who feel that culture is wrapped up in a television set or the back seat of a car at a drive-in theater — that Martin Beck and his PlayerStage company will produce "Pajama Game" during the Christmas holidays in the Mediterranean Room of the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel.

The opening date is still in doubt but both Beck and the Riviera management have indicated that if the colorful musical comedy doesn't go up on Christmas Eve, it will begin on Christmas Night.

IT'S A RIDICULOUSLY difficult job to rehearse a show as complex as this one in the short time remaining between now and the opening but I needn't have worried.

"We've been in rehearsal for two weeks," Beck said yesterday.
"I knew we'd play somewhere and I told the cast so.

"No one asked another question.
They just went ahead and worked."
The result is that Beck has a two-week jump on his show for the Riviera. And two weeks can spell a lot of difference.

I'll have the full story for you by the middle of next week, but from here it looks as though PlayerStage—with or without City Council aid, sanction or blessing—is going to continue to stay a valid entity in Village drama.

JOHN ROBERT CLARKE'S fifth
"Adventure in Living" in his Village series was rescheduled until tonight because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

The title for tonight is "The Friendly Alligators of Sarah Bernhardt," surely an intriguing title.
The lecture will eye Bernhardt's peculiar sense (or nonsense) and the discussion ought to be particularly stimulating.

It starts at 8 p.m. in the Biltmore Hotel here.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE: Actor Barry Sullivan and Swedish-born actress Birgitta Sullivan have called it quits . . . She filed for divorce Tuesday . . .

Cosmopolitan for December — themed on the "pursuit of happiness" — has the two stars of "The Misfits" on its cover . . . One is Marilyn Monroe, who's divorcing
Arthur Miller, the other Clark Gable, who died last week . . .

Hoot Gibson underwent abdominal surgery again Wednesday in Las Vegas' Southern Nevada
Memorial Hospital.

Producer - songwriter Arthur Freed will produce the 33rd Oscar show on April 17.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Non-singing actor Lloyd Bridges, pressed into a vocal chore at the recent Whispering Waters opening bash, got off a very funny line.

"Take it in a flat," advised pianist Billy Marx.
"A flat?" quizzed Bridges.

"What is a flat?"
(Same affair, Betty Garrett was yanked onstage, said she didn't feel she'd do a good job since she'd been "suddenly taken very drunk.")

feature of stepped-up Riviera programs.

DEMONSTRATION OF various phases of ceramic making will be demonstrated at 8 p. m., Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis
An exhibit of finished ware is now on display at the Museum.

CERAMIC EXHIBIT NEXT FOR MUSEUM

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Steger of the Steger Studio will demonstrate various phases of ceramic making at 8 p.m., Saturday, in the auditorium of the Palm Springs Desert Museum.

The Stegers will be assisted by some of their students, and will show the casting of greenware, hand modeling and sculpturing, as well as techniques of glazing and staining, an exhibit of finished ware is now on display at the Museum.

In March, at the Ceramic Hobby Crafts trade show at Disneyland, all entries in the competitive hobby class from Palm Springs took blue ribbons.

Tonight, the unique Kodachrome slide program, "Photo-Artistry," an effort to present photography as a fine art, will be given at the Museum at 8 p.m.

Admission charge to Museum programs is 50 cents for adults, 25 cents for children. The Museum is open Monday through Saturday from 10 to 5, Sunday from 1 to 4, free of charge.

COMBINED ACT

Patti, Ben, Paul Score At Chi Chi

Patti Moore and Ben Lessy and Paul Gilbert, Nicki and Noel, the Bill Alexander Band. At Chi Chi Starlite Room.

When the rough edges come off of those segments of the new Chi Chi show that sends Patti Moore and Ben Lessy onstage with Paul Gilbert, the threesome will have one of the most spontaneously funny acts on the club circuit.

WITHIN THE BROAD format of this new show — special materials written by Mac Marinda—Moore and Lessy do a show of their own, an extension of the same shows they've done here before, and Gilbert also fills a huge segment with his highly volatile humor.

Together — on stools at the outset and in 1890's bathing suits at the finish—they parody, lampoon and just generally laugh along at everything in sight.

MOORE AND LESSY also unveiled a new addition to their act, a thing called "Are You Ready?"
that swings very hard.

Gilbert, faster and funnier than I've ever seen him, also packed a group of new yokes into his segment.

His analysis of today's hip comics was particularly intriguing.

"You got Sahl, he uses a newspaper for a prop.

"Shelley Berman, he uses a phone. If he gets the wrong number, no act.

"Then there's the button — down mind of Bob Newhart and the open fly humor of Lenny Bruce."

NICKI AND NOEL, a brand new dance team for these jaded eyes, fit into this show as if they'd been born for it.

P.S.: Bill Alexander's new, seven-piece band has more fire, more vigor than ever before. For dancers, they're like money in the bank.

—George Laine

Migrant Worker Story on Report

When John Schultz, film editor for "CBS Reports," makes a cut in the footage of "Harvest of Shame," the poignant report on the plight of America's migratory workers, it's the kindest cut of all.

Schultz understand the plight of the workers better than anyone else on the "CBS Reports" staff. He was a migratory worker himself before World War II.

"HARVEST OF Shame," which will be presented on the CBS Television Network Friday, Nov. 25 (9:30 - 10 p.m.), follows migrant workers along the routes of seasonal harvest on the East Coast, in the Midwest, and in California. Before the war Schultz and his family — father, mother and sister — worked in the fields of the Pacific Northwest.

Says Schultz: "For several months we were squatters in an abandoned log cabin in Idaho. Then we moved West where my mother got a job in a cherry packing plant and the rest of us dug potatoes. In Washington, we were lucky. We found room in a concrete 'barn' that housed 60 people."

BUT LUCKY OR not, the food was no better than average migrant fare.

ANCIENT CURSE THREATENS DRIVE

The curse of an ancient culture which lived and died before the dawn of civilization creates mystery and intrigue for the Sedalia-bound cattle drive on "Rawhide" Friday, Nov. 25 on the CBS Television Network (7:30 - 8:30 p.m.). (This is a rebroadcast.)

Stars of the hour-long western are Eric Fleming as Gil Favor and Clint Eastwood as Rowdy Yates. Favor and Yates run across archaeologist Dr. Lismore and his daughter Naeve searching for the ruins of an ancient Druid civilization on the Texas plains.

Slade Lured To Death Trap

A racketeer uses a beautiful girl as a decoy to bait Scott Brady into delivering a message ordering his own death on "Shotgun Slade," Friday, Nov. 25 (7 to 7:30 p.m.) on KNXT, Channel 2.

NAVY GIVEN EDGE OVER ARMY TEAM

PHILADELPHIA — Bullet Joe Bellino made Navy a slight favorite to defeat Army in their annual classic Saturday but the Middies wore the compliment easily for this is the game that is won on the field and not in the record book.

"I hope Army's coach, Dale Hall, can convince his players we have the better team," said Wayne Hardin, coach of the Middies, who won last year, 43-12.

HALL, ROUNDING out his second season as Army mentor, disagreed with the odds which made Navy a 1½ point favorite.

"Navy should be a big favorite and we should be the distinct underdog," Hall said.

Both taskmasters led their squads today into the Philadelphia battleground for the 61st renewal of their historic rivalry, with Army holding a 30-25 victory edge, with five games tied. A crowd of 100,000 will watch the braid and brass struggle.

Navy has an 8-1 record, which is all wrapped up in a chunky back named Bellino. He has scored 17 touchdowns and is the second highest point producer in college football.

Army, with a 6-2-1 log which includes a triumph over Syracuse and a tie with Pitt, is aiming to stop Bellino and will try to do so with a 220-pound block-buster guard named Al Vanderbush.

Texas Accepts Bluebonnet Bowl Bid Dec. 17

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

Texas, victor in the featured game of a skinny Thanksgiving Day football program, accepted a bid today to the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston, Tex., Dec. 17, while Navy and other powers got set for the last big Saturday of the 1966 season.

Texas, which had to hang on for dear life to gain a 21-14 victory over Texas A. & M. in a nationally televised game, accepted the Bluebonnet berth provided the Southwest Conference grants approval.

ANOTHER BOWL bid may be at stake — in addition to the usual glory — when Army and Navy tangle Saturday before an expected 100,000 fans in Philadelphia. Navy, rated a two-point pick thanks to backfield ace Joe Bellino, reportedly will receive several bowl bids if victorious.

National prestige also will be at stake in the battle between rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State. Mississippi, a 17-point favorite, was ranked No. 3 nationally last week by the UPI board of coaches. This is Ole Miss' last regular game, while Minnesota and Iowa, ranked 1-2, already have finished their regular seasons.

TEXAS JUMPED off to a 21-0 halftime lead over the Texas Aggies in the Turkey Day feature before a crowd of 50,000 at Austin, Tex. All three Longhorn scores were set up by Texas A. & M. errors, and the Aggies had plenty to regret when a second-half surge gave them the statistical edge but only two touchdowns.

In other feature games on the holiday, Pennsylvania downed Cornell, 18-7; Denver defeated Colorado State, 21-12; Wichita trounced West Texas State, 31-14; Richmond upset William and Mary, 19-0; Virginia Tech upset VMI, 13-12; and Mississippi Southern whipped Chattanooga, 38-6.

Detroit Knocks Montreal Out Of First Place

By United Press International
The Detroit Red Wings knocked the Montreal Canadiens out of first place in the National Hockey League Thanksgiving night and the largest crowd in the history of the Detroit Olympia watched them do it.

Cheered on by a crowd of 15,859, the Red Wings beat the Canadiens, 3-1, and broke the three-way tie that had existed for first place. The Chicago Black Hawks moved up to second place with a 2-1 triumph over the Toronto Maple Leafs and the New York Rangers climbed out of the cellar with a 5-3 victory over the Boston Bruins.

Detroit thus was the only team in the league which wound up Thanksgiving Day in the same position it started the holiday night game.

Gillman Juggles Chargers Lineup

LOS ANGELES — Los Angeles Chargers football Coach Sid Gillman today juggled his lineup to replace ailing right end Howard Clark prior to Sunday's meeting in the Coliseum with the Oakland Raiders.

At stake in the clash is first place in the Western Division of the American Football League. Clark, nursing a thigh injury suffered in a collision during the Houston Oilers game, missed the contest with the Buffalo Bills and won't be on the field Sunday against the Raiders.

TROJANS FAVORED OVER NOTRE DAME

LOS ANGELES — The greatest of all intersectional clashes, Southern California against Notre Dame, will be played for the 32nd time here Saturday with the Trojans favored to close out a spotty season on a high note.

Coming off one of the top upsets of the season with a 17-6 victory over UCLA, the Trojans were favored by a touchdown to beat the Irish for the first time since 1956.

A SOUTHERN California victory would give the Trojans a 5-5 season and the successful close would offset earlier defeats. Should Southern Cal win, it would be the first time since 1938 that they would have beaten their three California rivals, Stanford, California and UCLA, in the same season.

Chamberlain Sets Rebound Record, Loses

By United Press International
Even a record-breaking rebounding performance by Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain couldn't knock the Boston Celtics out of first place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association.

The seven-foot Chamberlain gobbled up a fantastic 55 rebounds Thursday night at Philadelphia, breaking the NBA record of 51 set by Boston's Bill Russell against Syracuse last year. But Boston came out on the long end of a 132-129 score.

In other games Thursday night, Elgin Baylor's 33 points led the Los Angeles Lakers to a 108-100 win over Cincinnati, and Bob Pettit's 31 points paced the St. Louis Hawks to a 132-129 victory over Syracuse in a twin bill at St. Louis.

Chamberlain had a game-high 34 points to go with his 55 rebounds. The Warriors led most of the way but never again after Sam Jones' basket for Boston broke a 114-114 tie with 5:43 to play. Tom Heinsohn led the Celtics with 26 points and Sam Jones had 25.

And a win over the Irish would be only the third time USC has beaten Notre Dame and UCLA in the same year. They did it in 1938 and 1956.

NOT DESIRING to tamper with success, Coach John McKay indicated he would go with the same lineup that performed so well against UCLA and featured two sophomore stars, quarterback Bill Nelsen and fullback Hal Tobin.

There was a possibility, however, that co-captain George Van Vliet would start at left end because it was his last game. Injuries kept him from starting last week.

THE IRISH, BESET with about as many injuries all season as the Trojans, indicated they too may start a sophomore quarterback, Daryle Lamonia, who hails from nearby Fresno, Calif., but it was likely that junior George Haffner would see most of the playing time.

Haffner does not have as good a percentage record as Lamonia but has completed 30 passes out of 108 for 548 yards this season.

ILLUSTRATING HOW deep Coach Joe Kuharich has had to dip into his reserves was the fact that possible starting fullback Bill Ahern if he gets the call will be the ninth man used at this spot this season.

The Irish have won only one game this year, their opener against California, but in most games they have been a touchdown or less behind their opponents.

Gas Chamber Rap Slated For Seiterle

Teen-Age Killer
Admits Strangling
Wife of Salesman

RIVERSIDE UT — David J. Seiterle, 19, will be formally sentenced to death today for his part in the torture-slaying of a prosperous Riverside businessman and his wife.

A jury of eight men and four women Tuesday returned the verdict ordering him to die in the gas chamber.

SEITERLE ADMITTED he and two other teen-agers, Karl Gentry, 17, and Thomas Neil O'Hara, 16, broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duvel on Aug. 11 and tortured the couple to make them reveal where their money was hidden.

Seiterle, who briefly had worked for Duvel, a vitamin distributor, said after he and his conspirators found $200, "We'll have to kill them because they know me."

SEITERLE ADMITTED strangling Mrs. Duvel, 45, while she was tied on her bed. Gentry said he stabbed to death Duvel, 47, as the man was tied on another bed. Both Gentry and O'Hara earlier pleaded guilty to murder charges and were sentenced to life imprisonment.

It is estimated that the U. S. Merchant Marine contributes more than $5 billion a year to the nation's economy.

Total Cost of Funeral was $4.85

You may now register for self or entire family under the Plan of Burial Insurance. Costs only a few cents a day. In time of need regardless of how little has been paid, the Plan pays the funeral bill. For example a complete funeral was paid for recently when only $4.85 had been paid in. Issued by an admitted legal reserve insurer. Good at the Palm Springs Funeral Chapel or at any funeral chapel in United States. For free information write Burial Plan, P. O. SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—A Bexar County commissioner can't avoid taking a stand on a controversial issue. "We are paid $1,000 a month to make decisions, and we should vote on every issue one way or another," Jorrie said.

PHONY CHECK CHARGE HITS VISITOR HERE

Palm Springs police booked Clinton Henry Muller, 38-year-old Pacific Palisades car salesman, on charges of fraudulent checks yesterday afternoon, after Muller signed a check on his wife's account to cover a hotel bill here.

Officers said Muller, under the name of Jack B. Kaufmann, had signed a check on his wife's account for a $312 bill at the Riviera Hotel. The billing included approximately $200 worth of clothing purchased at a men's shop in the hotel, police reported.

Muller is suspected of having issued a fictitious check to the 650 Hotel here earlier, where he registered Sunday evening as C. H. Hall.

For every one hour of flight by a U. S. scheduled airline plane, there are about 19 hours of direct maintenance support.

Around Town . . . with Hildy Crawford

It was the day after Thanksgiving . . . and all through the house . . . there was a smell of oven-browned turkey . . . and a refrigerator filled with cold turkey and cold mashed potatoes . . . and cold dressing . . . scraps of cranberry slices . . . and odds and ends of green peas and candied sweet potatoes . . . and a jar of turkey broth you might make gravy out of . . . There are rolls . . . drying out in the bread box . . . and persimmon pudding that has exhausted its lemon sauce . . . Flowers in need of fresh water . . . and a house that looks like company had been there . . . There's a stack of Thanksgiving greeting cards and telegrams . . . and only a desire for Metrecal . . . a bit of sunshine . . . and (omigodness) checking those Christmas lists.

Thanksgiving's over . . . and it was a wonderful day with family and friends . . . and too much of everything good to eat . . . For the most part it was a quiet holiday in Palm Springs . . .

The Richard Bagdasarians motored to Bakersfield . . . to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter Judy . . . who joined them there . . . coming from Stockton . . . where she attends the College of the Pacific . . .

Lt. Gen. (Ret.) and Mrs. Bill Irvine spent a quiet day at their home on Vereda Sur . . . with their two children Jane and James . . . who attend school here . . . Irvine divides his time between here and Los Angeles . . . where he is vice president of the L. A. Branch of AVCO Co. . . .

Lillian and John McClure . . . who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday . . . by hosting a dinner for around 100 at the Tennis Club . . . had their family with them for Thanksgiving Day . . . Gathering at the McClure home on Mesquite were . . . their son Dr. John Q. McClure Jr. and his wife and children . . . and young Mrs. McClure's mother, Mrs. James Belden, Terre Haute, Indiana . . . Mrs. McClure Errett (the McClures' daughter Beverly) . . . and their other daughter Barbara and her husband Newell West and their children . . .

Thanksgiving at the Bisnaga home of the Warren Slaughters was a family affair too . . . with their four children . . . Noreen, Donald, Sheila and Jim . . . Mary's parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shannon . . . her two brothers and their families . . . Mr. and Mrs. Apollo Guizot, Mr. and Mrs. James Joy of Pasadena . . . the Edward Slaughters of Covina . . .

Gayle and Herb Burns hosted a holiday dinner for a group of guests . . . who are staying with them at their Four Hundred apartments on Arenas Road . . . Among them were . . . Mr. and Mrs. Slim Lewis, the Larry Thompsons of Denver . . . J. Aiken Millers of Riverside, Illinois . . . Tom Donnan of Seattle . . . and former guests Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ellis of Seattle . . . who are wintering at Sahara Park . . .

The Kenneth Todds spent Thanksgiving Day in Santa Monica . . . with Mary's sister and brother-in-law . . . the R. J. Thompsons . . . The Todds . . . who are from Rockford, Illinois . . . where he publishes two newspapers . . . winter here at their home on Camino del Sur . . .

The Monte Vista home of Dee and Roger Williams . . . was the scene of a happy Thanksgiving gathering . . . when they entertained at a lavish Thanksgiving dinner for a group of close friends and family . . .

The group included Mari and Stewart Williams and family . . . the Edward Canbys and twin sons Tom and Dick . . . Jean-Louis Scoffie (foreign exchange student from France . . . who is living with the Canbys) . . . the Gaylord Hamburgers and children from Austin, Texas . . . Gaylord is Dee's brother . . .

FOUNDERS DAY was celebrated Sunday by the Palm Springs Historical Society with a picnic luncheon and program at the South Palm Canyon home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moorten. Here, president, Carl Lykken, standing center, is conferring

Old Timers Honored at Picnic

An episode in Palm Springs history was enacted Sunday when about 135 Villagers attended the Sixth Annual Palm Springs Historical Society's Founders Day picnic luncheon held at the "Desertland Gardens" home of Mr. and Mrs. Cactus Slim Moorten and son, Clark.

This event is a pre-Thanksgiving Day salute to all the old-timers and founders of the Palm Springs area. Carl Lykken, chairman of the Society, and Mrs. Lykken, along with the Moortens and other members of the board of directors, greeted guests at the gate as they signed the record book. Gay Woodmansee and Sue Silverman arrived on horseback. The "Cactus Juice" fountain ran toast to the special honored guests including Raymond Cree, Zaddie Bunker, Rose McKinney, Mrs. Humphrey Birge, Miss Maude McQuillin, Mrs. Sylvia Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Griffith, Mrs. Louise Burket, Mrs. Jessie Wenger, Miss Mildred Wenger, Dawson Goff, Mrs. Pauline Goffnaggi, Mrs. Tom Kieley, Mrs. Claud Valeur, Mrs. Earle Strebe, and the Lykkens.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Willard of Lone Pine, former owners of this charming home, were unable to attend, having just returned from a trip to Colorado to visit their daughter, Bettie.

Mrs. Frank (Melba) Bennett, founder of the Historical Society, was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ralph (DeeDee) Busch and 11-month-old Ralph Busch III. Mrs. Bennett found it an appropriate time to register her grandson as a member of the Society.

The program included reflections of the activities in the early days of Palm Springs. The rest of the afternoon was spent touring the Moorten's Gardens, Museum and gallery.

A.I.B. Women Hold Meetings in Palm Springs

The Women's Committee of the American Institute of Banking held their annual meeting at El Mirador Hotel with Miss Phyllis Sills, of the Ramon Road, Security First National Bank in charge of the evening.

An outstanding feature of the occasion was a Career Girl fashion show put on for the group especially by J. W. Robinson's Palm Springs, with Barbara Foster models modeling the smart fashions.

Family Gathers to Honor Couple on Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Janus of 2359 Nicola Road East celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday, November 19. Mass was celebrated for them at St. Theresa's Church by their son Reverend Lawrence J. Janus pastor of St. Wilfrids Church in Woonsocket, South Dakota, who flew out especially to perform the ceremony.

Immediately afterwards luncheon was served at the Biltmore Hotel in the Garden Room, which had been decorated with yellow and white mums intermingled with gold leaves. Luncheon included a three-tiered anniversary cake. Mr. and Mrs. Janus were married 50 years ago in Philadelphia, but have resided in California for the past twelve years. They moved to Palm Springs two years ago.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, Nov. 25, the 336th day of the year with 38 more in 1960.

The moon is in its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1783, more than 6,000 British troops evacuated New York City.

In 1833, industrialist and philanthropist Andrew Carnegie was born.

In 1874, the Greenback party was organized in Indianapolis.

In 1907, Scottish soprano Mary Garden made her U.S. debut.

In 1920, station WTXW of College Station, Texas, broadcast the first play by play description of a football game in radio history . . . the Texas U - Texas Aggie game.

In 1936, the German Japanese anti-Comintern agreement was signed in Berlin.

Thought for today: British playwright John Tyndall said: "The brightest flashes in the world of thought are incomplete until they have been proved to have their counterparts in the world of fact."

RANCHO MIRAGE

European Jaunt Over for Daniels

By JEAN PATANE

A summer tour of Europe proved most interesting for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Daniel. In July they left Long Beach aboard the Orient and Pacific Line's S. S. Chusan. They went through the Panama Canal and stopped one day at Colon, Panama, before going on to Port of Spain, Trinidad, then to Las Palmas, Grand Canary.

They left the ship in England and spent 10 days visiting her relatives and friends they last saw when they were there in 1953. From Paris the Daniels flew to Berlin where their stay was most enlightening. During a two and a half hour tour behind the Iron Curtain they were able to note for themselves the vast difference between the Western and Eastern sectors.

From Berlin they took a plane to Zurich and enjoyed a leisurely tour of Switzerland stopping in Lucerne, Grindelwald and Lugano.

Next was Italy where they spent three days in Venice and were able to visit the famous glass making center on the Island of Murano. They visited in Florence and were in Rome during the Olympic Games. Enjoying the ancient part of the city, the modern Rome and also a trip to Tivoli, famous for its hundreds of fountains.

During their week in Sorrento in the Bay of Naples, they took a trip to the Isle of Capri and the Blue Grotto. They saw the ruins of Pompeii and took the famous drive to the town of Amalfi. They traveled back to Rome via Naples and from there boarded a jet to Athens, Greece. They considered Athens a most interesting city and the tour of the Acropolis and the Pantheon both particularly beautiful at night.

They were there during the celebration of the Grape Harvest when whole pigs and whole sheep are roasted in open pits for the villagers. They also enjoyed seeing the changing of the Guard at the Royal Palace in Athens, with the Greek soldiers in their short, white kilted uniforms. For the return voyage they took the S. S. Olympic of the Greek Line docking in New York after a delightful 12 days. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels are now at their new home, on Banks Drive for another winter season.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Groshong, of Lodi, frequent desert visitors, spent the weekend at the Suna-sion Motel and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Walbert of Monrovia were here for a few days mid-week.

Back for another winter are Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galyan, who are neighbors in Sunair and also during the summer in Boise, Idaho.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDowell had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Korn and children, Dedrea, Eric, Sharon and Mark from Barstow, where the McDowells made their home before moving to the desert. Their son, Ted, who is in his junior year at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo, is expected home today for the Thanksgiving weekend.

Mid-week guests at the Sunair Terrace were Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCluskey from Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McNabb of Sausalito are at the Terrace this week and here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Phillo from Palos Verdes Estates, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thies of Alhambra and Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Simor from Redondo Beach.

The Galyans came back last Tuesday and the Petersons arrived on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Magee drove into Beverly Hills with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones who were their weekend houseguests at their home overlooking the Sunset Strip. Saturday night they celebrated Mrs. Jones' birthday with dinner at "Scandia."

John and Iris Down presented the program for the Thanksgiving dinner for non-certificated employees of the Palm Springs Unified School District, that was held Saturday night in the High School cafeteria. Mrs. Down called for the Square Dance that followed the dinner.

Enjoying this week at the Palos Verdes Apartments are Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Kline, and their son, Fred Kline, Jr., of San Luis Obispo, and Miss B. Habrel and her sister, Toni, are also here this week from San Luis Obispo. Weekend guests included Theodore Schwartz, vice president of Sapphire Corporation in New York City, who was also at the Palos Verdes last weekend while in Los Angeles on business. Other weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. Baur from Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Karns from San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deibly and son from Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Redman from San Nuy, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coles from Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sayres of Pasadena.

House investigators who made the suppression charge contended that the report was withheld because administration officials feared it might be embarrassing.

WASHINGTON — The Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization has denied charges it tried to suppress an Army report which said the nation's air raid alarm system was inadequate.

But OCDM spokesman Herbert Moore did acknowledge that Director Leo A. Hoegh blocked the appearance of the man who wrote the critical study at a national meeting of civil defense workers.

Moore said the agency "made no effort to suppress the report—it was only a question whether this kind of man should be invited to this kind of meeting."

Indio Now Without a City Dump

Premature Close Leaves City No Refuse Location

Alarmed by the results of premature closing of the Indio city dump and delay in consummation of its agreement with the county for operation of the dumpsite on Massey Investment Company property north of Indio, W. E. Carter, company executive, appeared before the Board of Supervisors this week to request back-dating of the contract.

County Counsel Ray Sullivan explained that under the county zoning ordinance the company is required to obtain a public use permit. The planning commission granted the permit Nov. 9. Next in line of procedure the approval was reported to the Board of Supervisors Nov. 14, making the permit official subject to the usual 15-day period during which an appeal may be filed.

SULLIVAN SAID no protests are expected, but legally a contract cannot be entered into until after the 1-day period has expired.

Should the unexpected occur and a hearing be necessitated, the delay would of course be lengthened. On his recommendation the supervisors authorized Nov. 9, the date of planning commission approval, as effective date of the dumpsite contract provided there is no appeal against the permit.

CARTER TOLD the supervisors he believes he should be compensated if there is to be further delay but withdrew his request for pre-dating the agreement to Nov. 3 and agreed to the Nov. 9 effective date. He explained that following the Nov. 3 closing of the Indio city dump, people dumped their rubbish along the flood control channel and he was kept busy doing an expensive clean-up job.

He later opened the dump to public use and during a 20-day period 3,100 cubic yards of rubbish were deposited therein, an amount far in excess of what he had figured in his bid. "That's my hard luck," he told the supervisors.

The dump serves the Coachella, Thermal, La Quinta and Indio areas.

Suppression Rap On Alarm System Denied by OCDM

WASHINGTON — The Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization has denied charges it tried to suppress an Army report which said the nation's air raid alarm system was inadequate.

But OCDM spokesman Herbert Moore did acknowledge that Director Leo A. Hoegh blocked the appearance of the man who wrote the critical study at a national meeting of civil defense workers.

Moore said the agency "made no effort to suppress the report—it was only a question whether this kind of man should be invited to this kind of meeting."

House investigators who made the suppression charge contended that the report was withheld because administration officials feared it might be embarrassing.

TYKE TREED BUT FIREMEN CUT HIM OUT

BELOIT, Wis. — Todd Anderson, 7, was playing follow the leader Tuesday with his dog Billy. He lost.

Todd tried to follow when Billy darted through the hollow trunk of a fallen tree. The youngsters got stuck halfway through and it took firemen an hour to split the tree open and free him.

COUNTY ADOPTS PRECISE PLAN FOR HIGHWAY 111

A proposed precise plan for right-of-way lines on either side of Highway 111 between Date Palm Drive at Cathedral City and the western city limits of Indio was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation of the county planning commission following a hearing at which no one appeared either for or against the plan.

Meaty Survey

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (UPI)—A Texas A&M College survey shows that residents of the Northwest part of the United States eat the most lamb and mutton, while Westerners are the big beef eaters, and Southerners eat the most pork.

"It is the consensus of the commission that the current and contemplated development in this area will create serious traffic circulation and access problems," declared Planning Director Tyler Sues. "This precise plan will provide sufficient rights-of-way for through traffic lanes as well as service roads for convenience of local traffic."

THE SETBACK between Cathedral City and Indio is now 69 feet from the center line of Highway 111. The new plan calls for a 69-foot setback on either side of the existing center line from Date Palm Drive to the Palms to Pines highway; a setback of 102 feet from the existing center line on the south side between Deep Canyon Road and Miles Avenue at Indian Wells and a setback of 70 feet from the center line on the north side of the same stretch of highway.

CC Road Request Gets County Eye

A renewed request for extension of Cathedral Canyon Road through to Ramon Road was received from the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce this week, and referred by the Board of Supervisors to the county road and planning departments.

The C of C contends that if improved the road will serve the entire area.

The setback from the Miles Avenue intersection to the western city limits is to be 101 feet.

THE RIGHT-OF-WAY lines at bulb type development intersections at Deep Canyon Road, Cook Road, Palmaras Road, Smead Road, Indian Wells Lane, and Miles Avenue will be increased on both sides of the highway.

Sues said hearings will be held shortly after the first of the year, probably in Palm Springs, on the highway design. He said he believes a proposal whereby the state would pay for a 78-foot center road and property owners would finance 32-foot roads and 8-foot walks on either side of the center road with 7-foot parkways dividing the center road from the side roads on either side, would hasten completion of the highway now seen by some as 20 years away.

Argument Brings Skull Fracture

INDIO — Sylvester DeAka, Modesto, apparently lost his car and received a possible skull fracture in an argument near Avenue 70 and Fillmore here, the sheriff's office reported.

DeAka was moved to Riverside General Hospital after the attack, sheriff's deputies said. His missing car was recovered.

A warrant was issued for the apprehension of Clifford Fuller, 30, for questioning on the case.

READY FOR MOUNTING is this 10-foot abstract metal and mosaic tile sculpture which is being donated to Palm Springs High School by Village sculptor Glen Cargyle. Richard Harrison, left, and Don Wexler, right, of the firm of Wexler and Harrison, and School Board member Everett Ball inspect the work, above. The School Board named a committee including Ball, Wexler, Harrison and Stewart Williams, of the firm of Williams and Williams, to consult with Cargyle on the work. Mosaic tile in sun colors accent the heavy bronze finish of the entire piece which is valued at $2,500. The slim, vertical line, combined with the elliptical shapes complement the long, low-slung design of the facade of the administration building. Dedication ceremonies are to be announced. AID FOR MENTALLY retarded children in Palm Springs was urged by Mayor Frank M. Bogert, left, as he signed proclamation of current week here, in conjunction with National Week for Aid to Mentally Retarded Children. Proclamation urged local aid through Palm Springs Foundation for Mentally Retarded

County in Delay On Setting Tax In Water District

Setting of a tax rate for the Dos Palmas Water District was delayed by the Board of Supervisors this week pending the compiling of information by the clerk of the board.

"It's going to be the world's highest tax rate," predicted Supervisor George Berkey.

The district is located in the Dos Palmas Springs area east of Salton Sea. It seeks to raise $3,000 of which some $4,000 is to be spent in drilling a well. The assessed valuation of the property is $2 per acre. Thirty parcels of land are involved.

County Counsel Ray Sullivan guessed the tax will be about $214 per $100 of assessed valuation.

PORTLAND HEARS LEE BACKSTRAND

State Senator - Elect Lee Backstrand's outstanding role in the field of highways, transportation and traffic safety in California again received recognition this week when he appeared as the main speaker at a meeting of the Oregon Traffic Safety Commission on Tuesday in Portland, Ore.

The meeting, open to the public, was also attended by various traffic safety commissions as well as citizens support organizations. Vern Hill, commission chairman, presided.

BACKSTRAND, SOON to move into the State Senate after four consecutive terms as Riverside County's assemblyman in the State Legislature, was called to the Portland meeting to talk on the work of the California Assembly's Interim Committee on Transportation and Commerce of which he is currently serving as chairman.

This and other legislative committees which Backstrand has headed, or in which he has taken a leading role, have made extensive studies into California's highway needs and traffic safety problems. These studies have resulted in what is nationally known as "The California Plan."

HAILED BY experts as another "first" for California and called the most advanced and forward-looking study ever made on this subject, the report of Backstrand's legislative committee is the first step in a plan to anticipate the state's highway traffic needs up to 20 years in advance in the field of traffic safety.

At a previous meeting, the Oregon Traffic Safety Commission had postponed a decision on that states own long range traffic needs study program until Backstrand could be present to give the background and experience of the study being made by his California legislative committee.

JUDGE'S DAY IN COURT IS REAL TRYING

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Criminal District Judge Joe E. Brown war on the witness stand instead of behind the bench at a domestic relations trial, but forgot that he wasn't the judge in the case.

Judge Brown was testifying as a character witness when an attorney objected to a question directed to the judge.

"I sustain your objection on that," Brown said.

The embarrassed judge was upheld by presiding Judge Beth Wright, who added a belated, "Sustained."

Newspaper Changes Seen by UPI Veep

CHICAGO — UPI — Newspapers will change more during the next 40 years than they did in the first 60 years of this century, Earl J. Johnson, vice president and editor of United Press International, predicted this week.

Johnson told the 36th annual conference of the Associated Collegiate Press that the winds of change sweeping the world at the beginning of the 1960s are bound to affect journalism as they already have the field of science.

"ALL OF US ARE GOING to have our hands full keeping up with scientific discoveries, understanding them and developing the writing skills so that we can help other people understand them too," he said. "Not the mathematical formulas, but how these discoveries have rearranged our environment.

"People's tastes and interests are changing. Nineteen sixty-one may be the year when we send a man into outer space. It is a safe prediction, I think, that newspapers and news media of all kinds will change more in the remainder of the century than they have in the first 60 years.

"EVEN THE AMERICAN language is changing, not only with the introduction of new words like count-down and launching pad, but perhaps with a new orientation."

Johnson said that it is more important now for journalists to master good news writing than it was in previous generations because there are so many more vitally important things to report now than ever before.
